

SMLA Melvin S. Johnston Citizen Volunteer Award Nomination

The Melvin S. Johnston Citizen Volunteer Award is named in honor of Melvin Johnston, the founder of the Smith Mountain Lake Association (the SMLBA), real estate broker, land developer, and philanthropist. His greatest accomplishment as a member of SMLA was his efforts to stop Roanoke from dumping raw sewage into the feeder tributaries of the lake. He was our first Steward of the Lake.

The award, in his honor, goes to a person or persons who made the greatest contribution to Smith Mountain Lake and the quality of life around the lake, in the prior calendar year or over an extended time period. Prior recipients are not eligible for this award. Nominations must be submitted on this form.

Please provide as much information as possible, within each of the areas noted below, to support your nomination.

Name of Nominee: _____ Nominee contact: _____
(Please print) (Phone or email)

Name of Nominator: _____ Nominator contact: _____
(Please print) (Phone or email)

Please describe how the nominee has impacted one or more of the following criteria (the back of form may be used):
Impact on SML environmental issues; Significant contributions to water safety; Effective management of lake maintenance issues; Projects or programs within the Smith Mountain Lake Association; Demonstrated leadership; Lake and/or community stewardship; Other contributions of significance.

CURRENT YEAR: 2023

Thank you for completing this award nomination form. Please return the completed form to the SMLA office by email (theoffice@smlassociation.org), postal mail (SMLA, 400 Scruggs Rd, Suite 2100, Moneta, VA 24121), or drop-off by August 31.